

Fit and Proper Person Requirement Declaration

A person seeking or holding the status of a Registered Recreation Professional on NZRRP must be, and remain during the period of registration, a fit and proper person.

To maintain this standard NZRRP Governance Group requires each Registered Individual to:

1. Be physically and emotionally fit; and
2. be ethical and behave in an appropriate way, and
3. be mindful of their influence on safety, and
4. not bring NZRRP or the standards it administers into disrepute, and
5. be able to read, understand and query technical information related to the role they are appointed to, and
6. be legally permitted to work in New Zealand.

Individuals applying for registration will need to agree to:

1. being in a suitable physical and emotional condition to carry out the professional services; and
2. work to the Code of Ethical Practice for Recreation Professionals; and
3. have no undisclosed history of fraud, dishonesty, behavioural issues that would cause doubt over their fitness or ability to act in this role; and
4. have the literacy and numeracy skills to fulfil this role; and
5. are legally able to work in New Zealand

An attestation from a respected industry member as to the accuracy of this declaration will also be required.
